

Summary:

A commissioned work of art by the famous FEGA Master Engraved by Mitch Moschetti. Presented on a modern Colt 1911 Government Model chambered in 45acp.

When FEGA established their Profession certification in 1985 Mitch was the youngest member award that status.

Mitch's specialty is captivating three-dimensional style carving. From his deep carved and inlaid 24k gold to each detail in the leaf scroll and cross hatching.

This piece is an exceptional heirloom grade pistol that set a precedent of any discerned collector. The deep carving and cross hatching, to the various seasonal wolves portrayed on all 3 sides of the slide and rear frame. From the wolf paw print on the rear of the slide. This is a one of one hand engraved masterpiece. To complement the pistol and art we have added genuine Mammoth Ivory crosscut grips in a vibrant yellow, getting just the right fossil and cutting is symmetrical.

Mitch has been published in many Colt and Engraving magazines and books including in the American Engravers III by C. Rogers Bleile.

This is a rare your opportunity to own apart of modern day art on a historic Colt Collectable that will last for eternity.

Comes with the original Colt blue box and presented in our Hand Made SK Bespoke Collection Walnut Custom Display Case with Glass Dust Cover, lock and key. Engraved plaque with short description.
