

Summary

Manufactured in 1981, this Colt Detective Special revolver was engraved by noted Master Engraver Ken Hurst and bears his "K. HURST" signature on the right side of the grip frame.

With fine scroll engraving covering over half of the surface, decorative panels surrounding the standard barrel markings, and a circled Rampant Colt on the side plate.

An heirloom for any Colt collector and/or Ken Hurst admirer.

Description/ About the Engraver

Ken Hurst was a renowned American Master Firearms Engraver whose career spanned more than 50 years. He served as a Custom Shop Master Engraver for Colt and Winchester and produced exceptional work for other major firearm makers. Hurst was also an influential teacher, training engravers who later became masters themselves.

Ken was also a charter member of the Firearms Engravers Guild of America (FEGA). His own engraving-community profile identifies him as a FEGA charter member and records more than fifty years in the trade.

Ken sadly passed away in 2018.
